

HARDWICK HALL Derby.
The Queen of Scots Bedroom

The bed was early 17th century tent-stitched flowers re-applied onto a new black background in the 19th century.

The Queen of Scots died 4 yrs. before Hardwick Hall was built. The carving with the date 1599 may have been brought from Chatsworth (where Mary Queen of Scots was confined)

Nat. Trust neg. DBB/20/16R

PA-F00073-0007

Title
The Queen Of Scots Bedroom

Date
early 17th century